

On the bottom of your paper, write (t) or (d) or (Id) next to each word, depending on what you think the pronunciation should be. Then, fill the blanks for each sentence.

1. Mr. Peterson _____ himself when he tried to bake cookies.
2. The student found this class too easy, so he _____ to a higher level.
3. I _____ my car on Twenty-Second Street near Bartlett.
4. After I _____ the silverware, it looked like new.
5. It was one of the best restaurants in town. Everything _____ delicious.
6. I'm exhausted. I _____ fifteen hours yesterday, and I didn't get much sleep.
7. Mr. and Mrs. Blue _____ their apartment last weekend. They didn't _____ it blue.
8. Mary _____ her five year old son before she left him at school.
9. My cousin's plane _____ in San Francisco last night at 10:30. I had to pick him up.
10. The mail carrier _____ the package to the wrong address.
11. We didn't get out of the meeting until 11:00. It _____ late.
12. All of the newspapers _____ the story about the kidnapping.
13. After I _____ my car thoroughly, I vacuumed the inside.
14. Jeff _____ left on Sanchez Street instead of right. He got completely lost.
15. Little Red Riding Hood _____ some delicious cookies for her grandmother.
16. The wolf _____ out of the woods and stood in the girl's way. She was frightened.
17. We _____ our class reunion. We saw a lot of people we hadn't seen in a long time.
18. I like to play music that Bach, Beethoven, and Mozart _____.
19. I was cleaning the bathroom when I _____ a leak in the ceiling.
20. Mary _____ an interesting documentary on Channel Nine.

composed__	jumped__	kissed__	watched__	arrived__
reported__	turned__	delivered__	polished__	painted__
worked__	tasted__	ended__	burned__	changed__
washed__	enjoyed__	noticed__	parked__	baked__